NEW YORK, Monday, March 18, 6 P. M. The afternoon quotations of the general so get pretty well acquainted with what is going on around ne, but I don't think people generally look at the "labor questions" as they should be zeen. It seems to me there is or should be some way to make to the near the got to pay big rents they want more wages to do it with. Why don't you tell the bosses that if they would put some of their spare change into rentable buildings.
